

SELECTED DEFINITIONS

Asian & Other-	This represents a total of the Census categories American Indian or Alaskan Native, Asian, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander, Other, Two Races and Three or More Races. Census data (2000) may be available for more specific categories.
Hispanic Origin -	Origin can be viewed as the ancestry, national group lineage, or country of birth of the person or person's parents, or ancestors before their arrival in the United States. Persons of Hispanic Origin may be of any race. Specific Origin for 2000 may include Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban and Other Hispanic.
Household -	Includes all the persons who occupy a housing unit.
Labor Force -	Labor Force is the sum of employment and unemployment. Labor Force represents the number of people in a municipality who work or who are seeking work.
Multi-Family Housing Unit -	These are units in structures containing 2 or more housing units, further categorized as units in structures with 2, 3 or 4, 5 to 9, 10 to 19, 20 to 49, and 50 or more units. This number is obtained by dividing the number of persons in households by the number of households (or householders).
Persons Per Household -
Per Capita Income -	Per Capita Income (PCI) is the estimated average amount per person of total money income received during the calendar year 1989 for all persons residing in a given political jurisdiction. The per capita and median household income figures provided for 1999 were reported in the 2000 Census.
Private Sector Employment (Private Sector Covered Jobs) -	Covered employment is a monthly count of full and part-time employees, who earned wages during the pay period including the 12th of the month, as reported quarterly by employers covered by the New Jersey Unemployment Compensation Law. Basically, any employer paying at least $1,000 in wages in the current or preceding calendar year is covered. Jobs not covered by the law fall mainly into the categories of self-employed and unpaid family workers or certain agricultural and in-home domestic workers. Private Sector employment represents the number of jobs (private sector covered) in a municipality. 2000 numbers were unavailable for municipalities at the time of printing.
Race -	The federal government considers race and Hispanic origin to be two separate and distinct concepts. For Census 2000, the questions on race and Hispanic origin were asked of every individual living in the United States. The question on race for Census 2000 was different from the one for the 1990 census in several ways. Most significantly, respondents were given the option of selecting one or more race categories to indicate their racial identities.
Single Family Housing Unit -	This represents a total of the Census categories 1-Unit Detached and 1-Unit Attached. A 1-Unit Detached structure is detached from any other structure. Such structures are considered detached even if they have an adjoining shed or garage. Mobile homes or trailers to which one or more permanent rooms have been added or built are also included. A 1-Unit attached structure has one or more walls extending from ground to roof separating it from adjoining structures. This includes row houses, townhouses, and semi-detached homes.
